South Dakota State University Quality Initiative Assessment of Student Learning

Report of the Co-Curricular Programs Assessment Survey Results

Intent/Purpose of Assessment Plan

38%

21%

- Establish program efficacy
- SLOs are met
- Both

24 Programs Reporting

54% of respondents reported that their unit/program/activity has an assessment plan

Use of Curriculum Maps

6 reported that the "curriculum" has never been mapped to SLOs

6 reported that such an alignment has been conducted (within the past 5 years)

Who is Responsible for Program Assessment?

- Lead Admin(41.67%)
- Committee and others(8.33%)
- Other(8.33%)
- Did not answer(41.67%)

The most common type of strategy used is a survey or focus group for each activity. Others include:

- Portfolios (1)
- Pre/post test measures (3)
- Exit surveys/interviews (6)

Overall Rating of the Quality of the Current Program Assessment Plan

- No plan(41.67%)
- Not well developed(8.33%)
- Plan is fair(33.33%)
- Plan is good(12.50%)
- Plan is exemplary(4.17%)

Current Level of Understanding of SLOs

38%

8%

- SLOs regularly discussed
- Some understand SLOs
- SLOs not well understood

With Whom Do You Share Assessment Data?

Check all that apply

17
13
4
4
2
3

- Department/Unit
- Admnistration
- Accreditation/Certification
- Students
- External Advisory Committees
- Not shared

Use of Assessment Data

Check all that apply

13
4
8
7
7

- Professional development(33.33%)
- Teaching methods(10.26%)
- Activities for students(20.51%)
- Student advising practices(17.95%)
- Changes in staffing(17.95%)

Where is Assessment Data Stored?

- BOR system
- Locked cabinets in office
- QuestionPro/Survey Monkey
- Program coordinator work computer
- Excel files
- Shared computer drive
- In a file