NEW COURSE REQUEST

Supporting Justification for On-Campus Review

1. Provide specific reasons for the proposal of this course and explain how the changes enhance the curriculum.

   As colleges and universities continue to utilize approved consortia or tuition reciprocity agreements, students need a clear curricular option to take advantage of these opportunities. In doing so, students benefit from richer, more specialized, and relevant course and program options. Advisors are able to counsel interested students and review courses for quality, fit, and transferability before students enroll in them. Finally, institutions can make wiser uses of limited resources.

2. Note whether this course is:  X Required    X Elective

3. In addition to the major/program in which this course is offered, what other majors/programs will be affected by this course?
   Open to students in all majors

4. If this will be a dual listed course, indicate how the distinction between the two levels will be made.
   NA

5. Desired section size  24

6. Provide qualifications of faculty who will teach this course. List name(s), rank(s), and degree(s).
   Varies by location

7. Note whether adequate facilities are available and list any special equipment that will be needed for the course.
   Facilities adequate.

8. Note whether adequate library and media support are available for the course.
   Library resources adequate.

9. Will the new course duplicate courses currently being offered on this campus? No

10. If this course may be offered for variable credit, explain how the amount of credit at each offering is to be determined.

   Determined by the number of transferable credits/credit hours enrolled in the consortia agreement school and the number of credits returned to and accepted at SDSU.
