1. Provide specific reasons for the course proposal and explain how the changes enhance the curriculum.
   Dance 135 is being added to the dance minor curriculum in order to provide students credit for their performance experience in the dance minor. Dance is a performance art, whereas students utilize skills of technique, composition, and presentation to communicate to audiences. In order for students to obtain a holistic exposure to dance as an art form, students in the dance minor should be exposed to performance opportunities and provided credit for that experience.
