U.S. AIR FORCE TECHNICAL DEGREE SPONSORSHIP PROGRAM (TDSP)

Are you in the process of working towards a technical degree in electrical/computer engineering? If so the Air Force has a great program that may be for you – the Technical Degree Sponsorship Program (TDSP). It is an excellent way to earn money while you finish your education. Upon graduation, you will be commissioned as an officer and get started in an Air Force job that utilizes your technical skills. If you are looking for a life full of opportunity, where freedom and honor is a part of everything you do, the United States Air Force can help.

BASIC ELIGIBILITY

- Candidates must be between ages 18-34 years old at the time of commissioning and be a US Citizen
- Students must be in good academic standing for all college-level studies as well as their academic major (3.0+GPA)
- A minimum of 25 on the verbal and 25 on the quantitative portions of the Air Force Officer Qualifying Test (AFOQT)
  - Cannot have any prior military service and MUST be a U.S. Citizen
  - Graduate between 1 Sept 2016 and 30 Aug 2017 (dates may vary slightly)

BENEFITS WHILE STILL IN SCHOOL

- Paid salary as an E-3 of $1,823 a month, local Basic Allowance for Housing (BAH) of $873.00 (single) or $1,152.00 (married) a month, and Basic Allowance for Substance (BAS) of $352 a month (BAH is based on the Brookings area) Total monthly compensation = $3,048/$3,327
- Be issued an Air Force ID card (dependents too, if married), receive full military benefits to include health care, base exchange and commissary privileges

AFTER GRADUATION FROM COLLEGE

- Attend Officer Training School (OTS) at Maxwell AFB, AL for 9 1/2 weeks and be commissioned as an Air Force Second Lieutenant upon graduation

AFTER GRADUATION FROM OTS

- Commissioned to rank of O-1...Depending on the area, total starting compensation will be approx. $50-70k
- Enter with an initial four-year active duty commitment with possible opportunities to stay longer and make it a career
- Earn 30 days of vacation with pay every year, Thrift Savings Plan (www.tsp.gov) and non-contributory retirement programs
  - Access to fitness centers, golf courses and other recreational facilities at little or no cost
- Tuition Assistance and GI Bill (www.gbill.va.gov) monies for higher education while on active duty or after separation/retirement
  - Travel overseas or within the US and much, much more... www.airforce.com will provide a lot of great information

For more information on TDSP and other opportunities, please contact your local United States Air Force recruiter...

MSgt Jodi Friman

106 Peacekeeper Place, Offutt AFB, NE 68113  Jodi.Friman@us.af.mil  402-661-0965