Jason,

I support your plan to offer PSYC 443, The Social Psychology of Prejudice. We currently offer 443 as a unique course and would welcome the shift to it being a common course with SDSU. I feel this is a timely and valuable offering in our field and know that you have the personnel to field an excellent course.

Best regards,

Randy

Dear Dr. Hackemer and Dr. Quevillon,

Attached you will find the SDSU Psychology Department's request to offer PSYC 443. The department has been offering a nearly-identical class using the 492 "topics" designation and would like to officially add the class to its curriculum. We seek your authorization to add this class.

Thank you for your consideration. Please let Dr. Martin and me know if you have any questions or wish to discuss the request further.

Jason
