Subject: History of Modern Japan - Request to Offer Course

Dear Professor Schaff,

I am the department head for history, political science, philosophy and religion at SDSU. We formerly had as one of our courses HIST 314, History of Modern Japan. It came off of our books because it was not being offered at least once every other year. We would now like to bring it back on to an every other year rotation – as an online course, most likely during the summer.

Would your department object? We are happy to coordinate with NSU the year it is offered so that there is no unnecessary overlap.

Sincerely,

Will
