New Prefix Request

SDSU	Arts, Humanities & Social Sciences / School of American & Global Studies	Dennis D. Hedge	12/6/2022
Institution	Division/Department	Institutional Approval Signature	Date

- 1. Is the university seeking approval for a new prefix or authority to use an existing prefix?
 New Prefix Authority to Use an Existing Prefix
- 2. What is the proposed prefix? LATI (Latin)
- 3. Has the university consulted the existing list of approved prefixes in the Academic Affairs Council (AAC) guidelines to determine if the proposed prefix is in use?
 Yes No
- 4. Do the courses associated with the new prefix represent a discipline/program offered by more than one Regental institution?
 Yes No
If yes, have the other institutions reviewed this request (explain below)?
NSU has authority to offer LATI 101. USD has authority to offer a range of LATI courses. Programs at both institutions have provided approval via email. (Attached below.)
- 5. Courses in the new prefix
 - 5.1. How many courses are proposed for the new prefix? 7
 - 5.2. How many of the proposed new courses are in the x9x series? 3
- 6. Provide a brief rationale for the new prefix below:

SDSU requests the LATI (Latin) prefix to utilize elementary (101, 102) and intermediate (201, 202) Latin courses and LATI x9x courses. Each year SDSU students seek credit for AP Latin credits. The university is requesting authority to offer LATI 101, 102, 201, and 202 to be able to appropriately transcript the AP credits. SDSU has the same process for courses in Chinese and Russian. In addition, SDSU has students each year that request to study Latin where Latin on the transcript would be helpful. SDSU does not intend to incorporate Latin as part of the regular curriculum or scheduling.

Hi Teresa,

Sorry about the delayed response, I needed to email Trudy to get a bit more background information on this topic.

I do support an exception in this case to the requirement that you offer six (non-x9x) courses in order to be approved to use the LATI prefix.

Hello, Dr. Murphy.

Northern supports your offering courses in the LATI prefix, but we do request that your LATI 101 would not be offered as an online course so that we may prevent the possibility of taking enrollments away from Northern's regular face-to-face section of LATI 101.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Elizabeth

Hi Dr Murphy,

Thanks for your email. I copied our Associate Dean on this email, as she handles curricula in our college. She can provide our insights and/or support regarding your request.

Again, thanks for reaching out.

Greetings Dr. Kiesow,

I suspect this request falls under your purview. The School of American and Global Studies at SDSU would like to request authority to offer courses in the LATI (Latin) prefix. The specific course LATI 101 Elementary Latin happens to be a common course to both NSU and USD in the inventory. Would NSU support our request to offer it?

As I mentioned to Dr. Burrows (email below) from USD, we don't have many students interested in Latin but we have situations where a current student or two each year, typically a history student, requests to study Latin under our Dr. Graham Wrightson. In these cases, it is usually a student who has also begun to think seriously about graduate school, where Latin on the transcript would be helpful.

Respectfully,

James Murphy

Hi James,

A follow-up. A&S Deans told me they are fine with SDSU requesting to be able to use the LATI prefix, for use under the circumstances you described.

Cheers,
Dave

PS: please let me know about plans for filing to change the HIST 425 prereq.

That makes sense David. Thank you. We haven't talked about any larger plans here but simply to service some students, primarily from History and/or the religion minor who are thinking grad school. But it's worth me sharing your comments with Graham as well as Christi, our Director.

Best regards,
James

Hi James,

I'm supportive of it. We have had at least one USD grad student work with Graham on her Latin. Frankly I would rather that students who need Latin have access to Latin. There's just no guarantee that we'll be able to offer it here.

A&S here might however be concerned about the potential for Graham or SDSU to offer Latin 101-102 online, and for USD students to take an SDSU course.

So, I'm supportive, but I wouldn't be surprised if there's some balking from higher up at USD.

Cheers,
Dave

One more question David,

Would you all support our request to offer Latin courses? We don't have many students with this interest, but we situations where a current student or two each year, typically a history student, requests to study Latin under our Dr. Graham Wrightson. In these cases, it is usually a student who has also begun to think seriously about graduate school, where Latin on the transcript would be helpful.
