8. Explanation of the Change:

The Sport and Recreation Management (B.S.) program updated its curriculum for the 2023-2024 academic year to accommodate a larger focus on sport and recreation management vs outdoor and park recreation courses previously provided. Since the sport & recreation program focus and curriculum has shifted, the recreation administration minor requires a name change and curriculum update to reflect the shift in program focus from outdoor/park recreation to include more sports and recreation management.

RECR 260 Fundamentals of Sport and Recreation Leadership, RECR 315 Psychosocial Aspects of Sport and Recreation Management and RECR 410 Current Issues in Recreation and Sport are being removed from the curriculum to allow for the addition of RECR 486 Sport Law, RECR 311 Ethics in Sport and Recreation Management, and RECR 411 Sport Marketing. These three courses are also core required courses for the Sport & Recreation (B.S.) program and include pillar concepts that should be included in a minor with more of a sport focus vs outdoor/park focus.
