1. Provide specific reasons for the proposal of this course and explain how the changes enhance the curriculum.

This course focuses on equipping literacy coaches with the strategies and tools needed to empower educators in implementing differentiated literacy instruction that effectively supports students with unique literacy needs such as English Language Learners (ELLs) or students with Dyslexia. Participants will explore research-based practices for tailoring instruction to meet the diverse needs of all students. Through collaborative coaching techniques and practical applications, participants will learn how to guide educators in creating literacy environments that foster engagement and enhance learning outcomes for all students. This coursework supports literacy instructional coaches to develop the ability to become teacher leaders and support literacy acquisition within schools and complex educational contexts. The science of reading serves as a basis for additional learning that most teachers need to address the literacy challenges of today.
