South Dakota State University
Title IX/EEO Advisory Committee Charter

Overview
Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 protects people from discrimination based on sex, in education programs and activities that receive federal financial assistance. SDSU has established a Title IX/EEO Advisory Committee. The primary function is to assist the Title IX/EEO Coordinator in University compliance efforts, provide input on initiatives and programs.

Composition
This Committee will be comprised of the following members: Title IX/EEO Coordinator, Title IX Deputy Coordinators, Dean of Students, Assistant Vice President of Human Resources, Assistant Vice President of Safety and Security, Director of University Marketing and Communications, Disability Services Coordinator, Director of Residential Life, Wellness Center Director, Counseling Services Director, Manager of International Student & Scholar Services, Director of Multicultural Affairs, Assistant Director for Student Engagement, AIECC Program Director and an Academic Department Head representative.

Responsibilities
The role of the Title IX/EEO Advisory Committee will be to examine, review and assess the overall Title IX/EEO compliance program, structure and training initiatives. The committee may make recommendations to the Title IX/EEO Coordinator on ways the University can maintain and achieve a higher level of compliance. The committee will also participate in analyzing of aggregate reporting data and assist in ways to strengthen the overall compliance program.

Organization and Meetings
The Title IX/EEO Coordinator will serve as chair of this committee and will schedule committee meetings throughout the year. Meetings will occur at least quarterly. It is expected that the committee will convene when circumstances warrant discussion and coordination of compliance efforts.

Accountability and Reporting
The committee's agenda, work activities, and meeting minutes will be maintained via InsideState. The committee's accomplishments will be reported annually to the University President. Each April, the Title IX/EEO Advisory Committee members will complete the Committee Guide to Self-Assessment Evaluation. The intent of this self-assessment is to enhance the overall effectiveness of the committee.
