Intramural Sports FAQs

What are Intramural Sports?
Intramural Sports are a level of competition offered by most colleges and universities. It is where students, faculty, and staff can form teams in various sports and internally compete against one another. Some intramural sports offer an opportunity to play other schools, which are referred to as extramural sports.

When is registration?
Intramural Sports registration is on-going throughout the fall and spring semesters. Check the calendar for the deadline of the sport/event that you are interested in playing.

Who is eligible to play intramural sports?
Any South Dakota State University student or Wellness Center member may participate. Cost for Wellness Center members is $20/team sport and $5/individual sport. A current Student ID or intramural pass must be must presented prior to participation each time you participate. Members may pick up an intramural pass at the Welcome Desk.

How do I form a team?
Ask other students in your residence hall, classes and clubs if they would like to participate.

Is there a fee to sign-up an Intramural Sports team?
No. Intramural Sports are free to students, faculty, and staff.

How do I sign up for Intramural Sports?
To register for intramural sports, you must create an account through IMLeagues.com. Learn more about how to set up your account, the online registration process, and closing registration dates. Spots will be filled on a first come, first serve basis. Spots are limited.

Can I play on more than one team per sport?
Yes, if the sport is offered as Co-Rec (CR) and single gender (M/W), then you may play in the league of your gender and the co-rec league. If it is only offered as Co-Rec, then you are only allowed to play on one team.

Do I need equipment?
Yes, while some sports here do require you to supply your own equipment some may have equipment already on site for your own use.